BRADY INDUSTRIES ACQUIRES MISSION INDUSTRIES

Eric Brady, President (left) and Travis Brady, CEO (right) welcome former Mission Industries employees to the Brady Industries family.

LAS VEGAS – Brady Industries, the premier cleaning solutions provider throughout the Western United States, has acquired the resort laundry division of Southern Nevada commercial laundry service supplier Mission Industries.

884 employees and 3 processing facilities representing Mission Industries' resort laundry division will join the Brady Industries linen division, Brady Linen Services. The acquisition brings Brady Industries' total number of employees to 2,011, making it one of the nation's largest resort laundry service providers. The company will now process approximately one million pounds of laundry per day in its 6 Las Vegas facilities.

“I am thrilled to welcome Mission Industries to the Brady Industries family,” remarked Brady Industries CEO Travis Brady. “We believe in Las Vegas, and this acquisition provides us with the people and resources to continue to service our customers into the future.”

Headquartered in Las Vegas since 1947, Brady Industries is a third generation, family-owned full line, full service janitorial supply and commercial laundry services company. Corporate divisions include janitorial supply, cleaning equipment & repair, kitchen warewash & sanitation, and commercial laundry & uniform service.

Brady Linen Services was started in 2000 to address the demand for higher quality and service in the evolving Las Vegas market. Due to continuing demand, Brady Linen Services expanded steadily from its original 40,000 square foot plant, opening a second facility in 2006, a third in 2009 and acquiring Mission Industries in 2011.
